Work Experience, Internships and Volunteering

Transfer pricing Executive, Deloitte Haskins and Sells

May-July 2016
Bangalore

- As a transfer pricing executive, I and my team executed projects relating to finding comparable companies for our clients who included Nestle, Dechra, Toyo Inks, Nokia and many others.
- The transfer pricing team at Deloitte essentially inspects the profitability of its clients to check that profits haven't been shifted from a high-tax jurisdiction to a low-tax jurisdiction to avoid paying tax.
- Used the various databases used in transfer pricing including Compustat (North American searches), Amadeus (European searches) and Osiris (Asia-pacific searches) to conduct comparable company searches.
- Prepared search workbooks, conduct trade description review and detailed website or annual report review and finally arrived at the Interquartile range of the various ratios like the operating margin, gross margin which are used to compare the profitability of the comparable companies.
